CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

We're a Eucharistic people. Giving and giving thanks - the literal meaning of Eucharist - are part of who we are every day, wherever our lives take us. Our Holy Father Pope Benedict XVI put it this way: "Each of us is truly called, together with Jesus, to be bread broken for the life of the world." The Church's mission of living the Eucharist goes on always and everywhere. Here in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, we have a once-a-year opportunity to participate in that mission in a special way, by giving and giving thanks through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA), formerly the Archdiocesan Annual Fund Drive, is an annual effort by the Archdiocese of Cincinnati to spread the Gospel through informing and engaging the faithful with important regional ministries that benefit thousands of people throughout nineteen counties in western and southwestern Ohio. We invite you to share your gifts of time, talent, and treasure to participate in the life of our local church through these ministries.

Dear Padre

Why did Saul become Paul?

I know Saint Paul's name was originally Saul. Where in the Bible does it say why it changed?

Leroy

Dear Leroy,

Saul is first called Paul in Acts 13:9 "Saul, also known as Paul." Paul was his Greek name, while Saul was his name among the Jews.

However, I wouldn't say it's a name change; Scripture shows Saint Paul was called by his Jewish name, Saul, even after his conversion on the Damascus Road.

Saint Luke, his close companion and the author of the Acts of the Apostles, calls Paul, Saul, until his ministry in Antioch. Once Saints Paul, and Barnabas are sent on their ministry among the Gentiles (see Acts 13: 1-2), we first see the name change in Acts 13:9. From then on, the use of Saul stops except in the three accounts of the story of his conversion (see Acts 9:1-9, 22:6-11, and 26:12-18).

Notice that in the story of Paul's conversion, Jesus calls him Saul, his Jewish and familial name. The Holy Spirit also calls his Saul (see Acts 13:2).

Saint Paul used his more formal Greek name, Paul, among the Gentiles. Thus he never refers to himself as Saul in his letters, because his letters were written in Greek for Greek speakers in predominantly Gentile communities.

Saint Paul seems to prefer Greek names. He refers to Peter as Kephas eight times in his letters, while he only calls him Peter twice (see Galatians 2:7-8).
