Parish Festival 2016

With the anticipation of our parish festival's start next Friday evening, June 10, and the beginning framework of the festival already on the parish grounds, I invite everyone to keep the intention of a safe and successful festival in your prayers this week, as well as, to join me in asking for the blessings of favorable weather for this major and key event in our parish life. My thanks to all who work so hard throughout the year and especially in the days leading up to the festival weekend to make this possible!! Hope to see you on the festival grounds

Festival Weekend Mass Schedule

With the festival schedule for the next weekend and providing a mass for the festival workers, I remind everyone of the change to the Sunday mass schedule for June 12. Next weekend there will be only two masses scheduled on festival weekend: at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday (the 9:00 a.m. morning mass is dropped from the schedule on festival weekend). Also there are no scheduled times for confessions on festival weekend. St. Margaret Mary Church still has confession times that weekend, from 3:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. Please keep this in mind as you plan for next weekend's schedule.

As part of the Bicentennial Celebration, the Bicentennial Committee plans to publish a book featuring a comprehensive listing of all Mt. If you are a Veteran, or you know a family member or friend that served, please help them gather the details of service. They welcome anyone with a connection to Mt. Healthy (born here, lived here, went to school here, etc.) Please tell your fellow Veterans. A form to be completed is on the Mt. Healthy website at <http://mthealthy.org/mt-healthy-veterans-project/> or call the parish office and a form can be mailed to you. Thank you.
