Holy Week Liturgies

A blessed Holy Week to everyone!

In today's bulletin you will find an insert with a listing of the liturgies of Holy Week taking place in the Pastoral Region for both Assumption Parish and St. Margaret Mary Parish. Please keep this for your reference during this important week as you make your plans to join us for these celebrations.

Collection for Holy Land Good Friday

During the liturgy on Good Friday, April 14, an opportunity to support the Holy Land, its struggling Christian communities and the protection of Christianity's holiest places will take place. Your support is appreciated.

Lenten Fasting and Abstinence reminders:

Good Friday, April 14, 2017, is a day of abstinence from meat and also a day of fasting, that is, limited to a single full meal. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics 14 years and older. The law of fasting binds all Catholics from their 18th birthday until their 59th birthday.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Divine Mercy Sunday will be held at St. Bartholomew Church on April 23rd. Pope John Paul II declared Divine Mercy Sunday a feast in the universal Church which he enriched with a plenary indulgence “to ensure that the faithful would observe this day with intense devotion.” Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a special day when “all divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened”. (Diary 699) Join in the outpouring of God’s Mercy at St. Bartholomew Church at 2:00 P.M. with guest speaker, Fr. Benedict O’Cinnsealaigh, S.T. D., who will also lead us in prayer and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Following the Rosary, the Devine Mercy Chaplet will be sung. Ten priests will hear confessions starting at 2:00 P.M. They will close with the Benediction. There will be pamphlets on Divine Mercy available. For further information call St. Bartholomew Parish Office at 522-3680.
